

BASIC INCOME PILOT

CONSULTATION

The Ontario government is launching a pilot project to study different ways of delivering income support and reducing poverty in Ontario.

Join the conversation.

Give your input to the government to design and implement this pilot project by:

January 31, 2017

If you work in/are interested in this area:
Expert Survey

If you are a member of the public:
Public Survey

For more details: Ontario.ca Backgrounder

Bruce Grey
POVERTY TASK FORCE

WHAT IS A BASIC INCOME?

A basic income is generally seen as a payment from the government to a person or family to ensure they receive a minimum income level.

START DATE

The government is collecting feedback now and will share a final report on what they hear and introduce a plan for the pilot by April 2017.

SURVEY

2 surveys can be completed now by members of the public or people who work in/interested in the pilot.

